

Virginia Giuberti

Degree in Psychology (1998, University of Bologna, 110/110 'cum laude'); Specialization in systemic-relational psychotherapy (2004, I.S.C.R.A. Modena, 60/60); Training at the University of Colorado on autism in preschool children (2001, Denver, USA); Mini-master on "Neuropsychological assessment in adults and during developmental age" (2006, Reggio Emilia). Research fellowship at the "Center for the Diagnosis, Treatment, Rehabilitation, and Research on Autism and Pervasive Developmental Disorders" (AUSL Reggio Emilia, 1999–2002); Independent professional contract with the AUSL Reggio Emilia Autism and PDD Center (2002–2005); Staff Psychologist position at AUSL Reggio Emilia (Child and Adolescent Neuropsychiatry Unit – Autism and PDD Center) (2005–2017); Head of the Autism Center and Autism Program (SOS) at AUSL Reggio Emilia (2017–present).

Participation (2009–present) in regional "hub-and-spoke" meetings for the PRIA (Integrated Regional Autism Program).

Lecturer at numerous conferences, seminars, and training courses on Autism and ASD. Collaboration on autism research projects with UNIMORE and UNIBO.

7/31/2026

