

Marco Mariani graduated in “Law”, in “Political Science”, in “Administration Sciences” and in “Social Sciences for non-profit organizations and International Cooperation” with full marks. Furthermore, Marco attended post graduate masters/courses at many other universities (Bocconi, Luiss, Sapienza, European University Institute, EADA Business School, Camerino). Marco was Teaching Assistant at the University of Florence. Marco is the founding partner of Catte Mariani Law Firm, based in Florence and Rome and he is licensed to practice before the Italian Higher Courts. He mainly deals with issues concerning Information Law, Public Utilities Law and Public Procurement, Administrative Law, Law and Economics. Marco wrote numerous publications (including two monographs, 29 anthologies and more than 50 articles in legal journals) on the matters of Public Utilities Law, Local Authorities Law, Administrative Law, Public Procurements Law, Planning Law, Bankruptcy Law, Consumers Law, Corporate Law, Constitutional Law. In the same subjects Marco has been lecturer and speaker in many courses and conferences. Marco currently serves as President at the UIA “Administrative and Regulatory Law” Commission (Paris), as Deputy President at Smart Cities Law Firm (Barcelona), as European Affairs Director at the Luigi Einaudi Foundation (Rome).